Me And Bobby McGee

1 I st^Ced flat in Baton Rouge, headin' for the trains,
2 Feelin' nearly faded as my jeans.
3 Bobby thunbed a diesel down just before it rained,
4 Took us all the way to New Orleans.
5 I took my harpoon out of my dirty red bandanna
6 And was blowin' sad while Bobby sang the blues.
7 With them windshield wipers slappin' time and Bobby clappin' hands
8 We finally sang up every song that driver knew.

9 US Freedom's just another word for nothin' left to lose,
10 And nothin' ain't worth nothin', but it's free
Left is all she left for me
11 Feeling good was easy, Lord when Bobby sang the blues,
12 and that was good enough for me,
Good enough for me and Bobby McGee.

13 From the coal mines of Kentucky to the California sun,
Bobby snared the secrets of my soul.
14 Standin' right beside me, Lord through everything I done.
And every night she kept me from the cold.
15 Then somewhere near Salinas, Lord, I let her slip away,
Lookin' for the home I hope she'll find.
16 And I trade all my tomorrows for a single yesterday,
Holdin' Bobby's body next to mine.
